PROGRAMMING EXPERIENCE

Associate Software Engineer, Zelis (Bain Capital Ventures); Remote, 2022 — Current

Within agile scrum, I am a developer on WPF and MVC applications leveraging technologies across the Microsoft stack from end-to-end. By espousing patterns like service-oriented architecture and MVVM design strategies like DelegateCommanding and pub-sub event handling, I solve production support issues through the CI/CD pipeline. Additional responsibilities include carrying out runbook activities in enterprise patching for production and lower environments, packaging application releases, as well as securing confidential information by following established HIPAA and PHI policies for this premier healthcare payments servicer.

Junior .NET Developer, Coder Foundry; Kernersville, North Carolina, 2021

- 1000+ hrs developing full-stack, MVC applications under software requirement specs
- Applied APIE and SOLID principles while working efficiently to meet deadlines
- Built six front-end apps with vanilla JavaScript, HTML, CSS
